

Music is integral to the funeral rites. It allows the community to express convictions and feelings that words alone may fail to convey. It has the power to console and uplift the mourners and to strengthen the unity of the assembly in faith and love.

Family members are encouraged to take an active part in the funeral, including the selection of music, but only insofar as their grief and sense of loss permit. If the family prefers, the organ and cantor will select appropriate music.

Please send all music requests to Christopher Hebard, the organist:

Requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance, so that the musicians have time to prepare and rehearse.

The organist will select one of the qualified cantors who are familiar with the funeral rites at St. John's.

The fee for the organist and cantor is $150 each.
